THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION—MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President transmitted the following message to the Senate on the 18th:

To the Senate of the United States:

The resolution adopted on the 5th instant, requesting the President to transmit to the Senate a copy of any proclamation of amnesty made by him since the last adjournment of Congress, and also to communicate to the Senate by what authority of law the same was made," has been received.

I accordingly transmit herewith a copy of a proclamation dated the 25th day of December last. The authority of law by which it was made is set forth in the proclamation itself, which expressly affirms, that it was issued "by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution, and in the name of the sovereign people of the United States," and proclaims and declares "unconditionally, and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, a full pardon and amnesty for the offence of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights, privileges, and immunities under the Constitution, and the laws which have been made in pursuance thereof."

The Federal Constitution is understood to be, and is regarded by the Executive, as the supreme law of the land. The second section of article second of that instrument provides that the President "shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment." The proclamation of the 25th. ultimo is in strict accordance with the judicial expositions of the authority thus conferred upon the Executive, and, as will be seen by reference to the accompanying papers, is in conformity with the precedent established by Washington in 1795, and followed by Presidents Adams, in 1800, Madison in 1815, and Lincoln in 1863, and by the present Executive in 1865, 1867, and 1868. ANDREW JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 18, 1869.

The copies accompanying the President's answer to the Senate are as follows:

1. Proclamation of General Washington, dated tenth day of July, seventeen hundred and ninety five, granting to citizens who had been engaged in insurrection (resisting collection revenue on distilled spirits and stills) in the western counties of Pennsylvania, excepting certain classes described in proclamation, a general pardon of all treasons and other indictable offences.

2. Proclamation of John Adams, dated twenty first day of May, eighteen hundred, granting full pardon to all and every person (including some excepted in Washington's proclamation) engaged in said insurrection; whereby remedying and releasing unto all such persons all pains and penalties incurred, or supposed to be incurred, for on account of the premises.

3. Proclamation of James Madison, dated sixth day of February, eighteen hundred and fifteen.

Certain foreigners, flying from the dangers of their homes, and some citizens of New Orleans, "forgetful of their duty," had co operated in forming an establishment on the island of Barrataria, near the mouth of the Mississippi, for the purpose of a clandestine and lawless trade. The government of the United States caused the establishment to be broken up, and proceeded to prosecute the offenders by indictment, etc.

For reasons set forth in the proclamation, President Madison grants to the offenders a full pardon of all offences committed against the laws, or touching intercourse and commerce of the United States with foreign nations; and the President directs all suits, indictments, and prosecutions for fines, penalties, forfeitures, etc., to be discontinued and released.

4. Proclamation of President Lincoln, dated eighth day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, familiar to the public, granting to all persons (certain classes excepted) who had participated in the rebellion, full pardon and restoration of all rights of property, except as to slaves, and in property cases where rights of third parties shall have intervened.

In this proclamation Mr. Lincoln begins by citing the provision in the Constitution empowering the President to grant reprieves and pardons. The law of Congress declaring forfeitures, etc., and authorizing the President to issue proclamation of pardon and amnesty, with such exceptions as the Executive may deem proper, is then cited. Mr. Lincoln, referring to this act, adds:

Whereas the Congressional declaration for limited and conditional pardon accords with well established judicial exposition of the pardoning power; Therefore, etc.

5. Proclamation of President Lincoln, dated 26th. of March, 1854, defining cases in which persons are entitled to benefits of the preceding proclamation.

6. Proclamation of President Johnson, dated 29th. May, 1865, similar to the Lincoln proclamation of December 8, 1863, granting pardon and amnesty, except in cases therein named.

7. Proclamation of President Johnson, dated September 7, 1867, extending full pardon to certain persons who were engaged in the rebellion. This proclamation extends pardon to classes mentioned who were not pardoned by preceding proclamations.

8. Proclamation of President Johnson, of July 4, 1868, granting general pardon and amnesty to persons engaged in the late rebellion, with certain exceptions and restrictions.

SLAVERY IN WEST VIRGINIA.—Human slavery has been revived in West Virginia, notwithstanding its dedication to freedom. A pauper was sold to the lowest bidder at Wirt Court House on the 31st ult. The Elizabeth Gazette mildly alludes to the transaction as follows:

The sale was public and held in front of the Court House. We denounce the act as iniquitous and barbarous, for the reason that there is no warrant of law for it, but only a custom engendered by that spirit of slavery which has stamped the Code of Virginia all over with its own iniquity.—The only authority which this custom is predicated upon is section 12, chapter 51, Code of 1860, which is as follows:

"Any person to be provided for or assisted by an overseer or overseers, may either be kept at the place of general reception, or be supported or assisted elsewhere, as he or they may deem best."

There is no authority here or elsewhere in the entire code by which a free State may be disgraced by those scenes common among the slave pens of Virginia before the war amid United the auction blocks. The person sold was a woman, and stone blind, and who formerly was the owner of a good farm in this county. She was struck off at $2.20 per week for her maintenance until next June.

As the woman is probably white, we don't see the sense of making a fuss about it.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the Low range of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pre sing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction. A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be refunded in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

All orders must be addressed to J. B. HUNTER & CO., Raleigh, N. C. Jan 15-tf Standard copy.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,600,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6.000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1869.

DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION.

This portion of Governor Worth's golden letter to President Johnson, shows that the arrest, transportation, and imprisonment of citizens of the State in dungeons of other States; the arrest of innocent and unoffending women, and the unlawful seizure of property, were not the greatest evils and enormities inflicted upon us by reconstruction.

These were but brutish outrages upon individuals, who have been released, or died of disease or broken hearts, under the ignominious despotism of a cowardly faction. Holden, as military or Provisional Governor, did much to break the free spirit of the people, and destroy the freedom of the press; by encouraging the Bureaus and military in their unlawful arrests, by threatening to seize the property of Dr. Hawkins, Mr. Mordecai and others. When Sickles and Canby came, the people had settled into the calm repose of despotism, and these two military tyrants worked their will upon the people as Warren Hastings did his upon the people of India.

The trial by Jury, the habeas corpus, the tribunals of justice, the Constitution and all its safe guards suffered; they were dishonored and trampled upon, by Holden, Sickles and Canby, in their mad efforts for party purposes to execute upon the weak and fallen the "will of the nation" instead of the Constitution and laws.

"Oh, liberty, how many crimes are committed" in thy name!" "Oh, loyalty, how many thieves cover with thy cloak."

RALEIGH, Dec. 31, 1867.

JURY TRIAL.

By the laws of this State, fresh olders only are made competent to serve on Juries.—The County Courts are required, from time to time, to review lists of freeholders and cast out all not well qualified to serve, and to draw Juries for all our Courts out of the lists, after being thus purged. The law does not limit the drawing to white men; but negroes, not being regarded as citizens, are never drawn as jurors. Gen. Sickles, by his order No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, ordained that "all citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as Jurors." The Courts were ordered to carry this order into execution without delay. No power was allowed the Court to cast out any taxpayer, white or black, however ignorant or debased his character might be. Our Sheriffs and tax collectors are required to collect the taxes and make their returns by the 1st day of October, and consequently our Courts could not know till after the 1st of October, who paid a tax the current year.—In the early part of August, I was informed that two Courts had been broken up by subordinates of Gen. Sickles, because Juries had not been drawn as prescribed in order No. 32. The Fall Term of our Superior Courts was just about to commence and I unders o od Post Commanders were ordered not to allow any jury trial where juries had not been drawn conformably to Order 32. Upon my satisfying Gen. Sickles, by telegram, that it was impracticable to execute his order till after the 1st. of October, he issued orders suspending its execution till it was practicable for the Courts to carry it out. I remonstrated to Gen. Sickles against this order as being worse than would be our edict abolishing jury trial, and as being excessively distasteful to our people, and unnecessary to the fulfillment of the legislation of Congress. He would neither revoke nor modify it. Soon after Gen. Canby assumed command, I made a renewed appeal (see copy of this appeal annexed, marked I,) in which I insisted that he should at least modify it in conformity with Chief Justice Chase's order to the Marshal at the opening of the U. S. Court here. He ordered the Marshal to summon negroes as Jurors, they being otherwise qualified by law. This made all negroes competent who owned a freehold; in other words, put them on the same footing with white men. Soon afterwards, about Sept. 13th, 1867, Gen. Canby modified the order as follows, "all citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes the current year, and who are qualified and have been or may be registered as voters are hereby declared qualified to serve as jurors," making the matter far worse than Gen. Sickles had left it. By disqualifying our citizens not allowed to vote, who comprise the chief intelligence of the country as truthfully and manfully admitted by Gen. Sickles in his letter to Senator Trumbull, he would have made trial by jury a ridiculous caricature upon this time honored institution. Upon my representing to him that the Courts could not execute this order until registration was completed, and they were furnished with copies of the registration books, he finally allowed men to be drawn, but provided that either party might put them off by challenge. This innovation upon our jury laws is generally regarded as an unnecessary and offensive display of power, calculated to foster and engender hatred against the government, instead of bringing about the reconciliation and fraternity which every good man should encourage.

One of the lamentable effects of the military edicts abrogating our laws and decreeing new ones, is the resignation of Judges Merrimon and Fowle. (See copies of their resignation, marked J. and K.,) explaining the reasons constraining them to resign, and a number of our conscientious and intelligent Justices of the Peace. A part of the oath of office of every Judge and Justice of the Peace, as presibed by statute, is in these words: "I will not delay any person of common right by reason of any letter or command from any person or persons in authority to me directed or for any other course whatsoever, and in case any letter or order come to me, contrary to law, I will proceed to enforce the law, such letters or orders notwithstanding." These gentlemen held that they could not obey many of the military mandates of Gen. Sickles and Canby, having due regard to their oath of office. The vacancies cannot be suitably filled by men who will take the iron-clad oath.

JONATHAN WORTH.

LEFT IN A HUFF—BLOW YOUR HORN BILLY!

The President of the North Carolina Railroad, upon the passage of the consolidation bill by the "hands" in the House, left the city cursing carpet baggers. Curse them again, Billy. Blow your horn and call up the dogs you used for hunting deserters during the war. Put them after the carpet-baggers, if you like. It is more creditable to chase carpet-baggers than negroes. We have heard your friends deny you had such dogs. Nathan Gully, your neighbor, is our authority for saying you had such dogs.—You know him, he's your friend. You made him Agent at Clayton and then dismissed him. Yes, he's the man to whom you directed your dismissal after this wise:

"To Nathan Gully, Clayton, bully Republican but d—n poor Agent."

Since the particularity of Mr. Lassiter about names, we don't like to speak of dogs without giving their names. Nathan, send us the name of Billy's dogs,—deserter hunters—and any particulars of his hunts and capture of his neighbors children for desertion. The facts, if published, would prove intensely interesting, just at this time.

SOME LOGIC.

In a conversation, reported as having taken place between the Hon. A. H. Galloway, Presidential Elector, and Senator from the Wilmington District, and Mr. French and Mr. Laflin, of the House, yesterday, on the subject of the location of the Penitentiary, the Hon. Elector and Senator was understood to say, that he preferred Greensboro' as the location, for the logical reason that, if he, the Hon. Mr. Galloway, should unfortunately commit an offence subjecting him to a place in the Penitentiary, his time would expire before reaching Greensboro', via. N. C. R. R. on existing schedule.

We would suggest to the Hon. Elector, that there are other reasons more potent, to wit: He would be nearer to Mr. President Smith, who, no doubt, would procure his release, prior to an election, as it is understood he did the felons incarcerated in Greensboro' jail, and at Graham, prior to the last election—all of whom voted the Radical ticket—being released for that purpose.

THE Norfolk Day Book announces the arrival of large quantities of cotton in that City, which is sent North to be made into cloth; and deplores the fact, that the South will not establish factories of her own. It is a deplorable fact! And why? Simply because, now, as in all former time, our capitalists prefer to keep their money pocketed, fearing to take the risk of an investment in machinery, and prefering, to trust to the soil for its yield, to put more money in their pockets—even though their increase of wealth should prove slow. We cherish the hope, that this old fogy disposition will, ere long, wear off; and that we shall have factories of our own, on every available stream—yes, on the branch that runs through Lassiter's land—where the raw material will find a ready sale, and our people be enabled to proclaim their "souls their own."

A GREAT SUCCESS.—"Brick" Pomeroy's new Daily in New York City is one of the greatest and most successful newspaper enterprises of the country. His new weekly Pomeroy's Democrat is increasing in circulation a thousand copies per day. Send for sample copies to M. M. Pomeroy, Printing House Square, New York City.

PHENOMENON.—The night gangs of men employed in the silver mines near Virginia City, Nevada, witnessed a beautiful celestial phenomenon, at four o'clock on the morning of the 27th November. The sky was perfectly clear in every direction, and the Eastern horizon was peculiarly blue and bright, not the slightest sign of mist about the ridges of the distant Eastern ranges; yet the morning star rose of a blood-red color, and with a bright white halo, apparently five or six feet in diameter, surrounding it. From the lower part of this halo extended downward a tail apparently eight f.e. long and two feet in breadth at the upper part. This tail was slightly curved, of a sabre shape, bluntly rounded at the lower end, and both it and the halo appeared to be filled with thousands of small and exceedingly brilliant stars. This strange light lasted some fifteen or twenty minutes, or until the star had risen so high that the tail of the halo appeared to be two or three feet above the crest of the distant range, when it suddenly faded out.

The following text has been selected for Butler's funeral, when he dies:

From Jeremiah iii., 19: "And the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the cauldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons and the cups; that which was of gold and that which was of silver, the captain of the guard took away."

THURSDAY, Jan. 21, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at eleven o'clock.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Question being a motion of Mr. Winstead to reconsider the vote by which the bill, concerning the settlement of the estates of licensed persons, was postponed, the vote was reconsidered and the bill taken up, pending its consideration, on motion of Mr Barrow, it was postponed until to morrow, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Welker presented a memorial from the Trustees of the University, asking an appropriation of $12 000.

Mr. Welker offered, with the memorial, a resolution concerning the amount. Placed on calendar.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Osborne, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on a resolution in favor of Messrs. Caldwell, Bridgers and Arendell.

Mr. Robbins, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported back a bill to the Senate, authorizing the Commissioners of Pitt county to levy a special tax.

On motion of Mr. Rich, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings, and

On motion of Mr. Cook, it was made the special order for to-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Smith, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably on a bill for the relief of F. M Pittman, and favorably on a bill for the relief of W. H. Gentry.

A message was received from the House, transmitting the following bills, to wit:

Bill to amend the charter of the Union Manufacturing Company in the town of Fayetteville. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Bill in relation to a plank road leading from High Point to Salem. Referred to the Committee on Townships.

Bill for the better protection of certain debtors. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Resolution authorizing the arrest of W. A. Mann, late of Cumberland. Placed on Calendar.

Resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to wit:

Whereas: The Public Treasurer has in his possession funds belonging to several Sheriffs of the State and for which he is personally responsible,

Therefore be it Resolved, (the Senate concurring,) That the Public Treasurer be and is hereby authorized to use for the payment of the members of this Legislature and other expenses of the State, such funds as may be in his hands to the credit of Sheriff's and that the State shall guarantee the said Treasurer from all harm that may come to him from any points that may be brought under the plea that he has unlawfully paid out such money.

Mr. Love moved to amend the resolution, by prohibiting the Treasurer from paying out of said monies anything on the Stock side of Penitentiary contract.

Pending its consideration, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Jan. 21, 1869

According to adjournment, the House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the House.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Boddie and Smith, of Wayne.

Mr. Pou moved to suspend the rules, and take up Senate bill, repealing the purchase of the Penitentiary site, &c.

Mr. Downing said that the bill would be nugatory if passed, therefore, he hoped, the order of business would not be interfered with by a suspension of the rules.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, argued at length against a suspension of the rules. He wished to know why the proposition refunding the $109,000 to the State had not been accepted.

Mr. Pou said that whatever this matter was mentioned, members of that Committee, seemed to think they were individually aimed at. He had not, and would not, impute motives to any one, unless he had proof at his command. He intended to go forward in this matter, and discharge his duty, as a Representative of the people, regardless of the feelings of any body. He believed that part of the bill issuing bonds to the amount of $100,000 was unconstitutional, as no special tax had been levied to provide for their payment, &c. He wished the bill repealed in order that they might go ahead and have a Penitentiary, &c.

Mr. Downing argued for a sometime against the motion, and in conclusion moved to lay it on the table.

J. S. Leary, colored, arose to a point of order, saying that it had heretofore been the ruling of the Chair, that a motion to lay a motion to suspend the rules, on the table, could not be entertained.

The Chair sustained the point.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, again took the floor. He said he stood prepared to vote for the repeal of the bill, but before that was done, he and other members of the Penitentiary Committee, asked that the matter might be laid over until the proposition of Mr. Downing, might be accepted or refused, and that a proposition be sent to the Senate to allow this House to raise a Committee to investigate the whole matter, and publish the facts to the world.

Mr. Downing characterized the report of the Senate Committee, as being unfair and one sided, and not by any means making a full statement of all the facts, &c.

The question recurring upon the motion to suspend the rules, the yeas and nays were called, and resulted in a vote of yeas 61 nays 35.

The motion was lost, two-thirds not voting in favor of it.

On motion of Mr. Welch, the rules were suspended and the bill amendatory to the bill incorporating the Western North Carolina Railroad, was taken from the Calendar, and recommitted to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By consent Mr. Durham: A resolution in favor of E. Merrell, Sheriff of Onslow County. Referred.

By consent, Mr. Long, of Richmond: A bill in relation, to the issuing of $2,000 in bonds, to W. L. Steele, of Richmond County. Referred.

By Mr. Bowman: A bill concerning public roads in Watauga County. Referred.

By Mr. Ingram: A resolution having night sessions.

Mr. Ingram moved to suspend the rules, and adopt. Lost.

The resolution was placed on the Calendar.

Mr. French from the Committee on Counties and Townships, reported favorably, upon the bill, authorizing the Commissioners of Anson County, to levy a special tax.

By Thos. Sykes, colored: A bill authorizing, the County Commissioners of Pasquotank, to levy a special tax, for certain purposes. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Ladin, the rules were suspended and the bill establishing a Turnpike Road, from Marion, McDowell County, to Asheville in Buncombe County, was taken up.

The bill was read, when,

Mr. Pou moved to postpone the bill until to-day two weeks.

Mr. Laflin said he hoped the motion would be voted down, as this was merely a dodge of the anti-internal improvement men.

Mr. Ingram said that the finances of the State were suffering on account of the disarranged system of taxation. He regarded the tax and revenue bills as more important than these internal improvement bills, and should have the immediate attention of the House; therefore he hoped that the motion to postpone would prevail.

Mr. Welch said it was necessary to pass these Railroad bills, in order to ascertain the amount of money to be raised.

The motion to postpone was then put to a vote, and rejected.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill on its second reading, when,

Mr Bowman, (the introducer of the bill) took the floor and advocated the passage of the measure at some length.

Mr. Hodgett said he was a friend to a judicious system of internal improvements, at the proper time, but at the present juncture of our affairs, the people were in no way able to bear these large appropriations.—Pass all these bills, and you increase the State debt to some thirty seven millions. The expenses of carrying on the State government amounts, annually, to some 400 000. Add this to some $400 000 for school purposes, and you have $800,000.

Now this $800,000, added to the $2,220,000 interest upon the debt of thirty-seven millions, will leave the people the sum of $3,020,000 to be raised, to meet the current expenses of the government and to pay the interest upon her debt. Now, the people are in no condition to bear this enormous taxation, and he, now, at the beginning of these measures, would enter his protest against them all. Here was the youth of our country, growing up in total ignorance, and this Legislature, by their reckless extravagance in these Railroad matters, were incapacitating the State for years, from providing a thorough and ample system of education. He thought education of much more importance than these Railroads, and they should husband the resources of the State, in order to accomplish this end.—Here were gentlemen, from different sections, having, each, various projects in view to get through this House, therefore, combinations were formed, and a system of barefaced log-rolling indulged in, un-qualing anything he had ever heard of or seen in his life, to the utter disregard of the impoverished condition of our citizens, to thus turning a deaf ear to their cries of distress. He, in the name of all that is fair and just, protested against the sacrifice of the interest of the whole people to this combination of certain sections.

He opposed these measures upon the ground, that he wished to preserve the honor of the State intact. He had always abhorred the doctrine of repudiation, and regarded a man, who favored repudiation per se, as dishonest.

But he would warn the House, that, by their unconstitutional, oppressive and reckless appropriations, that they were rapidly educating the mind of the people to the doctrine of repudiation. He would warn, now, the bloated bondholder, that the people did not intend to pay these bonds, not because they were dishonest, but because their Legislature has declared war upon industry, and has, and is, inaugurating measures to oppress property-holders in such a manner as will eventually result in what may be well called a complete confiscation of their lands, and throw it up for a general scramble.

How do gentlemen propose to raise all this money asked for. The whole taxable property in the State amounts only to about $25 000 000, which will give a tax of about $125,000, and adding to this the tax upon polls, incomes, &c., the whole possible revenue that the State can command, will amount to about $1,725,000. Where then is all the money coming from? Was it to be wrung from the hard earnings and labor of our poor people, by a system of onerous and oppressive taxation?

Messrs. Sinclair, Malone, Candler and Laflin urged the passage of the bill.

On the passage of the bill, on its second reading, the yeas and nays being called, resulted in a vote of 89 yeas to 16.

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the rules were suspended, and the bill separating and dividing the Eastern and Western divisions of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, was taken up.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, advocated the bill in a speech of some length.

Mr. French argued for some time against the measure.

Mr. Ingram gave various reasons why he opposed the contemplated division of the road.

Mr. Sinclair moved that when this House adjourn, that it adjourn until 4 past 7 o'clock, this evening.

Mr. Jarvis moved to amend, by saying 10 o'clock, to morrow morning. Lost.

The question then recurred upon Mr. Sinclair's motion, and it was lost.

The House, then, on motion, of Mr. Sinclair, adjourned.

The Warrenton Courier, in speaking of the county of Warren, very truthfully says:

No county in any State boasts of a better society or a more intelligent, industrious people than old Democratic Warren, and while, as every other community does, we have certain turbulent, ill-disposed colored men, we feel a pride in saying, that like their former masters, the colored population have taken, and preserve a high position in point of morals and general good conduct, for which a just credit is due them.

Our county and town government is in the hands of Conservative, high toned white men, against whom there is no shadow of reproach or complaint.

With these recommendations, to which are added, a good soil, a healthy climate, good water and convenient to Railroad communications, we can conscientiously invite strangers from every quarter to locate among us, being satisfied that there will never be a regret for following our advice.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY.—The Prairie Farmer gets off the following:

Buckle, in his "History of Civilization," says that marriage does not depend upon love, but upon the price of corn. It is evident that children have long known this, and have even measured love as men measure corn, as appears from their common expression: "I love you two bushels and a peck."

The statistical lover does not now say, as he used to: "Amanda, I love thee—but, Amanda, provisions are cheap." There is no telling what fine novels and plays a man thoroughly imbued with this idea might produce, and particularly would he give us good songs. How imaginative would be one like this:

The heart bowed down with price of beef,
To weakest hopes will cling.
With the melancholy refrain:
For beefsteak is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taker as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for inveterate consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, gave it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and then enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the piracy of imposters. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by unscrupulous humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of he undersigned, in schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. by a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and hawkers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every critical the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit his seal, evidence of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be

MAJOR GALES.

The friends of Major Gales will regret to learn that for four days he has been confined to his room with an affection of his eyes, and slight fever. Our regret is twofold: First, regret for his suffering; and next, regret that we shall lose the invaluable services of the Major in the conduct of the Sentinel. Nature made him an Editor and a gentleman. No man requires less time to form an opinion, and no man surpasses him in putting these, quickly and correctly formed opinions, in handsome shape for the columns of a newspaper. His long experience and unwearied application to business, relieved us of much, we like to have said all, the hard labors which belong to Editorial life.

The Major has been chosen Secretary of the Home Insurance Company. That Company will have in its service a gentle gentlemen, of whom no one in this wicked city speaks evil, except the high priest of envy and malice. Our best wishes go with the Major.

ATTENTION BUCKET CO.—The Bucket Company will hold a meeting at the Mayor's office, on Friday evening, the 22nd inst., at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing its officers for the ensuing year, and also nominating some suitable person for the Chief Engineer. W. C. STRONACH, Foreman.

B. F. KING, Secretary.

Ginny Whitaker, colored, was before the Mayor yesterday, charged with having "lifted" a dress pattern from the store of L. E. Heartt, Esq. The fabrick was found in her possession, identified by Mr. Heartt, and the offender bound over to appear before Judge Watts, next week.

Mr. Jos. W. Holden, Speaker of the House of Representatives, has furnished the reporters of the Press, in the House, a handsome and convenient desk, which adds much to their comfort.

We are under obligation to Manton Marble, Esq., Editor of the New York World, for a copy of the WORLD ALMANAC, for the present year. We consider it invaluable for the statistical information which it contains.

There will be a partial eclipse of the moon on the evening of the 27th. instant, visible.

The uncollected taxes due the City of Charlotte, for '67 and '68, amounts to $6,000.

We learn from the Wilson Plaindealer that on Thursday evening last, as the mail train on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad neared the depot at that place, John Farmer, son of Elizabeth and the late Wiley Farmer, aged about 14 years, attempted to step on the platform of the ladies' car, when he missed his footing and fell alongside of the track, the front wheel of the car passing over his right arms, crushing it in a dreadful manner, rendering amputation necessary.

The Goldsboro Messenger regrets to learn that Mr. Willie Evertt, accidentaly shot himself in the leg with a pistol, on Monday evening last. The ball was extracted by a physician, and we are pleased to state that the wound, though painful is not serious.

St. Maur, Ventriloquist, Magician, &c., has been playing successful engagements at Wilson.

The upward tendency of cotton in New York, on yesterday as reported by telegraph, has created quite an excitement in our city market. We trust our farmers will have still additional reasons for rejoicing in a few days.

The price of shad in Wilmington continues at $1.50 per pair, in consequence of the small supply on the market.

We learn from the Charlotte Times of Wednesday that Mr. Z. M. Johnston was drowned in Rock River on Friday evening last. On his way from Harrisburg home in attempting to cross the river which was swollen, he was swept from the back of his horse and taken by the current about seventy-five yards below. There he caught a limb, which he held on to about two hours. A man was standing on the bank, who was too timid to go to his relief, but threw him a rope which he failed to get hold of. He was about thirty-two years old, and graduated at the University of the State in the class of 1859, and was bright and popular. A large number of the neighbors went to the river on Sunday morning to search for the body, when it was found near the bank in a clump of brushes.

DEBATE ON CONSOLIDATION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 20, 1869.

The special order, was announced, to wit: The bill to consolidate, the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company and the North Carolina Railroad Company.

The question recurred upon the motion of, W. T. Hayes, colored, to indefinitely postpone, the bill. After some discussion, the yeas and nays, were called upon the motion, and resulted in a vote of 15 yeas to 81 nays.

Mr. Sinclair, moved to amend, by inserting in section 21, line 5th, after the figures "49," by inserting "and the Western North Carolina Railroad, Chartered in the year —"

Mr. S. said if gentlemen would have consolidation, why not carry out the progamme, and consolidate all the way through to Pain Rock, &c. During the course of his remarks, in opposition to the principle of consolidation, said that he had no free pass, he had not been invited to excursions and feasted upon fish and oysters.

Mr. Bowman, said, he was one of the party, that recently had the pleasure of visiting the coast of his native State, and partaken of the fish and oysters, that abound in such plenty, in that locality. But if the gentleman, (Mr. Sinclair,) meant to insinuate that he (Mr. Bowman) would be bought from the path of rectitude, by such bribes, that he (Mr. Sinclair) judged him (Bowman) by notions derived from his (Sinclair's) own experience.

Mr. Sinclair, wished to know if the gentleman meant to say that he had ever been bought by "rings."

Mr. Bowman said he would reply by asking the gentleman another question. Did he (Sinclair) mean to charge him (Bowman) with being bought up.

Mr. Sinclair: No, Sir, I do not mean to say anything of the kind!"

Mr. Bowman then disclaimed any intention of reflecting upon Mr. Sinclair.

Mr. Welch said the attack of Mr. Sinclair, upon the gentlemen who lately visited Morehead City, was extremely unjust.—Most of the gentlemen were Western men, and had never visited the coast in their lives, and feeling that they were guardians of the interest of the people in this matter, thought they should acquaint themselves, by personal observation of the general features of that section. If he had come back with "shells upon the brain," and "sand upon his coat-tail," he could say that his nerves were in a better condition than some one's who had visited that locality once upon a time, for that person left in such a hurry that the sand would not stick.

Mr. Welch then continued for some time upon the merits of the bill. He said that there were birds of prey from Virginia, hovering around this Capital, endeavoring to buy up an influence against this consolidation measure. He was surprised that men had so little State pride. He was a North Carolinian and would go for building up the cities and towns of his own State.

He understood that there was a proposition, shortly to come before this House, to dispose of the State interest in the various Railroads. If such a measure was considered, he would venture to predict that the heaviest bids would come from men in Norfolk, &c. He was utterly opposed to any man, or set of men, who would legislate for, or advocate any measure in which the interest of our own State is sacrificed to that of any other. He thought this consolidation eminently proper, and one which would redound greatly to the interest of the State.

Mr. Sinclair arose to a question of privilege. He said his remarks upon the gentlemen, recently visiting the coast, was only meant as a little raillery, but he supposed Mr. Welch's allusion in regard to the nervous and hurried manner that some one, on a former occasion, left the coast, was intended for him.

In regard to the behavior of both himself and regiment, at the battle of Newbern all that he would say that his regiment was made the rear-guard in the retreat, &c.—As far as his record, during the war, was concerned, he could refer any one to the Adjutant General's office without a blush.

After a long discussion, Mr. French moved to insert in section 2, line 2, after the word "stock," "belonging to the private Stockholder," and in section 4, insert after the word "vote," the words "of the private Stockholds"

Mr. Welch argued for some time against the amendment. He said that this would leave the matter completely in the hands of a few men who were also interested in the Raleigh and Gaston, to such a degree that made a continuance of the present system highly desirable to them, &c.

Mr. French gave several reasons why he offered the amendment. He wished to allow the private Stockholders to express their opinion in the matter, &c. He thought that if a private Stockholder in either Road should object to the consolidation he could sue out an injunction and prevent a consumation of the measure, &c.

Mr. Pou next took the floor and argued at length in support of the amendment.

The Chair ruled Mr. French's amendment out of order, as there was an amendment to the bill pending at the time the amendment was offered.

Mr. Sinclair, by general consent, withdrew his amendment.

Mr. French urged his amendment.

Mr. Durham offered the following substitute for the amendment, to-wit: In determining and deciding for or against consolidation by the respective companies, the State shall have a right to cast a number of votes, equal to the whole number of votes cast by private stockholders.

Mr. Seymour said that those who were in favor of consolidation, could not support Mr. French's amendment, but had no objection to accepting Mr. Durham's substitute as a compromise, &c.

Mr. Seymour continued for some time in advocation of the bill. During his remarks, he said that this was a State measure. If the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad was taken out, the measure would not have a single opponent, &c.

Mr. Seymour was interrupted by Mr. Downing, who asked him, if this bill were to pass, what would be his (Seymour's) opinion in regard to other Railroads.

Mr. Seymour: Mr. Speaker, I suppose the gentleman don't intest to offer to buy my vote upon other bills.

—Mr. Downing: No sir, my question is simply to get your opinion upon other bills.

Mr. Seymour: But sir, the purport of your question, was that if I pledge myself to vote for some other measure, some of your friends will vote for this one.

Mr. Downing: I deny that sir; the object of my question is simply to get your opinion on the other bills.

Mr. Seymour: My opinion upon other bills, is not at all relevant to the matter now under discussion.

Mr. Laflin called the previous question.

The call being sustained, the question recurred upon Mr. Durham's substitute for Mr. French's amendment. On its adoption the yeas and nays being called, resulted in a vote of yeas 61 nays 41.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill, as amended on the second reading. The yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Argo, Armstrong, Bonner, Barnes, Beddie, Bowman, Candler, Carson, Carey, colored, Cherry, colored, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davidson, Dixon, Durham, Ellington, Estes, Farrow, French, Gahagan, Gatling, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Grier, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hodnett, Hudgins, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, colored, Malone, McCanless, Morrill, Morris, colored, Nicholson, Painter, Parker, Peck, Proffit, Ragland, Robbins, colored, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Simonds, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, Thompson, Veazel, Vest, Welch, White, Whitley, Wilkie, Williams, of Harnett, and Wilson—68.

NAYS—Messrs. Ashworth, Blair, Cawthorn, colored, Downing, Ellis, Forkner, colored, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, colored, Hendricks, Hinsant Hodgin, Horney, Jarvis, Kinney, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, colored, Mendenhall, Moring, Pou, Proctor, Rea, Renfrow, Robinson, Reynolds, colored, Sinclair, Sykes, colored, Williams, of Sampson, Williamson, colored, and Wiswall.

On motion, the House adjourned, until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

We have been visited by our old friend and late comrade in-arms, Col. Wm F. Beasley, late of North Carolina, but now of Louisville, Kentucky. It gave us pleasure to again grasp our friend's hand, and to find that his Western home has served him so well, in physique, as well as in good things of this life. Col. B. visits our cities in the interest of the Louisville Sorgho Company, for the purpose of selling to our merchants the patent right for North Carolina, for the manufacture of syrup and sugars from the sorghum cane. The company, of which he is the agent, has succeeded to a highly flattering degree, in solving the problem of granulating the sorghum syrup. Col B. has placed in our office samples of the sugar, and several grades of the syrup, which we unhesitatingly pronounce equal to any that is made in the sugar sections of our country. The sugar compares favorably with the prime grade of New Orleans make. Of course the common grades can also be made. The sugar and syrup is wholly free from that flavor peculiar to the old sorghum molasses used so much by us during the war.

And what is more surprising, is the cheapness with which it can be made. We have an estimate before us, for thirty acres of Kentucky land—which is much stiffer than our Virginia or North Carolina soils, which, including rent of land, at $7 per acre, hiring of hands, horses, cutting wood, making hogsheads, barrels, &c., every expense necessary, only amounted to $1,719,91.

As our farmers already have the land, wood, horses, &c., of course a great portion of the expenses will be saved. The mills, pans, &c., will be the only expense necessary to incur, which, at the highest estimate, will not exceed $500. The yield of syrup, minimum figures, 4,500 gallons. Each gallon contains from 5 to 7 lbs. of sugar, say 5, making 22,500 lbs. Also 5 lbs., of syrup, per gallon, besides the sugar, which make 2,045 gallons. The sugar sells readily at 13c. making $2 925.00; syrup sells for 70c. making $1,431.50; Total receipts, $4,356,-50. Expenses, as we have shown above cannot, if everything has to be purchased, exceed $2,000—leaving a clear profit of $2 356.50. This off thirty acres of land.—Of coure if all this expense is not incurred, the profit will be greater.

As this case is very prolific in North Carolina, it is evident that a vast deal of money is in store for the party who enters upon its cultivation and manufacture it into sugar and syrup. The sugar can be made for from 6 to 8 cents per lb. and the syrup at from 26 to 28 cents per gallon, leaves a very handsome margin to the manufacturer. We hope that our cities will take hold of the matter. To buy and to sub-sell, county rights, will pay well.—Portsmouth, Va., Courier.

CAN SUCH A THING BE?

The Freedmen's Bureau was established as a sort of recruiting station for the Radical party. Its agents have generally reported the basest of falsehoods regarding the Southern white people. It seems, however, that the colored people of the North have taken to holding conventions. On this subject the Jackson (Miss,) Clarion says:

We are entirely overcome by some startling developments in the proceedings of a Convention of colored people at the Capitol of Indiana, as we find them published in the Cincinnati Commercial and other orthodox Republican journals.

These "colored people" met to consider their wrongs and sufferings, which are fully set forth in a petition that they addressed to the Legislature of their State. They represent that "there are thousands of poor colored children in that State who are growing up in ignorance because of the want of facilities," and they ask the Legislature to afford means by which the colored children can obtain a pro rata share of the common fund, to support separate schools from those now provided for the education of the white children of the State; that you so change the common school law of the State as to tax the property of the colored people of the State as the property of the white people is taxed." Meaning that no provision is now really made for the education of the "thousands" of negro children that are growing up in ignorance in Indiana, and that the colored people are nevertheless taxed in excess of their just proportion to provide education for others.

It will be seen that these suffering colored people in the community in which they live do not presume to ask for suffrage—nor the right to sit on juries—nor the privilege of making laws for "de white folks," but they ask only that the rulers will but dip their fingers in the pool of knowledge and therewith cool their parched tongues. And all this is the wealthy and prosperous State of Indiana, where Radicalism reigns supreme, and whence the godly Railsback and other pious missionaries came forth to teach the Southern whites how they must deal with the blacks in their midst.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21, P. M.

Have the Committee examined Senator Sweet. Have they examined Gen. Laflin. Have they examined Col. Heck? Have they examined Mr. Downing? Have they examined Mr. Pruyn? Have they examined C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Work and occupant of the Governor's palace.

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

ACCUMULATED ASSETS OVER

$ 23,000,000.00.

ANNUAL INCOME,

$7,500,000.00.

Policies in Force Over 60,000.

FOR EVERY $100 OF LIABILITIES, IT HAS $154 OF ASSETS.

THIS COMPANY has proven to be the CHEAPEST, BEST AND MOST RELIABLE in the country, because it has the largest Income, largest number of Policy holders, largest surplus of Assets over Liabilities, its dividends to policy holders have been larger than any other Company, and ratio of expenses less; therefore being the cheapest and best Company for the insured.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past, the dividend will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three payments.

"COMING"

Without you, without you my darling!
Without you! what more can I say,
To show you how lonely my heart is,
Whenever your heart is away?

I wait and I watch for you, dearest,
With never a doubt or fear;
But that same to-morrow will bring you,
Some day of all days in the year.

How many to-morrows there have been!
How many to-morrows may be!
The longest but brings me the nearer
That day of all others to me.

And often I fancy I hear you,
Your hand on the latch of the door,
Your voice in the hall and your footsteps
Close—closer—beside me once more.

With glad eyes, half shut, now I see you,
As strong, and as brave and as true;
And eyes I know, even in darkness,
Belong to no other than you.

I know that, at last, it is over,
The wearying trouble and care;
And courage and comfort come back with
The touch of your hand on my hair.

But often, and often, and often,
I open my eyes—you are gone!
I am sitting alone, by the window,
The shadows of night coming on.

So often I dream you are near me,
It surely, some day, will come true,
So, singing—I hope, as I sing dear
The songs that I once sang for you.

And smiling I whisper, "My darling
Shall see only eyes that are bright—
No tears, then, to dim their love sunshine;
Who knows but he may come to-night?"

But never her lover came to her,
And never her dreaming came true;
The story has not the poor merit
Much prized—it is not even new.

A TRUE MARRIAGE.

I believe there are few thoughtful men who have not come to regard as one of the least explicable among the great riddles of the earthly economy the rarity of well-assorted marriages. It might be so different one cannot help thinking. The adaptations for harmony so wonderful! The elements of happiness so manifold and so rich! Yet how often—how miserably sometimes—it all miscarries! The waters of Paradise turned to fountains of bitterness—the gift of Heaven perverted to curses upon the earth!

I do not mean that there are few unions yielding reasonable comfort, friendly relations, a life free from open quarrel or secret heart burning; but I speak of every marriage without flaw or jaw—a mating alike of the material, with its intangible affinities and its wondrous magnetisms, and of the immaterial principal within that survives the death-change. I speak of a heart-home pervaded by harmony not only unbroken—immutable as that of the spheres; felt to be so by those whom it blesses, calms, satisfies; a social state to which, when man and woman attain, there remains nothing in the way of earthly need or acquisition, save daily bread, to be coveted or prayed for.

Some think that in this trial-phase of our existence, no such state of harmony and happiness is to be found. Among the few who do find it none of these skeptics will have place. No entrance into that temple except for those who believe! Without faith in the Good and the Beautiful—the Good that is felt, not seen—the Beautiful that must be conceived before it is realized—a man is shut out from the highest enjoyment. And such a man can do little to ameliorate the world or elevate his race.—"BEYOND THE BREAKERS," in Feb. No. of Lippincott's Magazine.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their indisputable rights, as well as the gentlemen don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
